The moving party shall arrange the hearing after conferring with opposing counsel with regard to conflicts.

(h) Courtesy Copies for Judge. A copy of all briefs, affidavits and declarations, and other documentary evidence to be considered by the court shall be provided to the judge assigned to preside over the trial or hearing at the same time as such documents or documentary evidence are required to be served on the opposing party as provided in the court rules or local rules herein.

(1) Caption. The upper right hand corner of the first page of each courtesy copy shall contain the words "Judge's Courtesy Copy," the judge's name, and the date and time of the hearing.

(2) Delivery. It is the court's preference that all courtesy copies for the judge be mailed or personally delivered to the court administrator in San Juan County. If time does not permit mailing or personal delivery, then the court will accept faxed copies to the court administrator. The court reserves the right to charge a reasonable fee for fax copies. No more than 25 pages may be faxed without prior permission from the intended recipient.

(3) Courtesy Copies Are Discarded. Courtesy copies are discarded after ten (10) days from the assigned hearing date, unless the parties or counsel notify the court administrator of a new hearing date and request that the courtesy copies be retained. SPECIAL MATTERS: MOTIONS AND PLEADINGS

(m) Motions to Shorten Time. Motions to shorten time for a hearing shall be granted only upon good cause shown. The party requesting an order to shorten time shall give verbal and written notice as soon as possible to opposing parties regardless of when pleadings are prepared and provided. Such motions shall contain a written certification that pro se parties or attorneys were notified of the time and place of requesting the order to shorten time, or the reasons why such notice was not given. The court may impose terms, including an award of attorney fees, where the court later finds there was insufficient need for shortening time. See also, LCR 5(a)(1).

(p) Motions in Dissolution Actions.

(1) Standard Forms and Supporting Affidavit or Declaration. Motions for temporary support, maintenance, restraining orders, parenting plans, costs, attorney fees and show cause orders in connection therewith shall be in compliance with any standard forms required by law and local rules herein and shall be supported by the affidavit or declaration of the moving party.

(2) Blank Affidavit or Declaration Provided to Pro Se. When one of the parties is pro se, a blank affidavit or declaration shall be attached to the motion for temporary orders and show cause order and served on the other party. In addition, the motion for temporary orders and show cause order shall contain the following language: "At the hearing, the court will consider written sworn affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury. Oral testimony may not be allowed. If you wish to respond, prior to the hearing you must: (1) file your documents with the court; (2) provide a copy of those documents to the judge; (3) serve the other party's attorney with copies of your documents (or have the other party served if that party does not have an attorney); and (4) complete your filing and service of documents within the time period required by the local court rules in effect in your county. If you need more information, you are advised to consult an attorney or a courthouse facilitator.

FAILURE TO APPEAR MAY RESULT IN A TEMPORARY ORDER BEING ENTERED BY THE COURT THAT GRANTS THE RELIEF REQUESTED IN THE MOTION WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE."

(3) Courtesy Copies. Courtesy copies shall be delivered to the assigned judge, pursuant to LCR 8.

(4) Evidence on Motions. Hearing with respect to all temporary orders shall be held and determined only upon the pleadings, affidavits or declarations, and other papers filed, unless the court directs otherwise.

Counsel or the parties appearing pro se shall certify that the issues are joined. If opposing counsel disagrees with the statement of issues or estimate of time needed, opposing counsel shall, prior to the trial assignment date, promptly notify the court administrator thereof in writing. The order of continuance shall state that a new note for trial setting and notice of conflicts shall be filed. Notice shall be given immediately to the court administrator if any case, which has been assigned a trial date, is settled or will not be tried for any reason whatsoever. (b) Mandatory Attendance. Except as provided in Section (f) below, within 30 days of filing an appearance, answer or other responsive pleading in this action, both parties shall register for a court-approved parent education seminar on the effects of family transitions on children, unless the parties have previously attended such a course. Each party shall attend the seminar within 60 days of registering.

MANDATORY MEDIATION

(a) Mediation in Contested Cases. Except as provided in Section (b) below, in all cases specified in Section (a) of SPR 94.08.2 having unresolved issues, both parties shall in good faith engage in mediation with a court-approved mediator in an effort to resolve the case. In cases where parenting issues exist, the mediation shall not occur until both parties have completed the parenting seminar described in SPR 94.08.2. Mediation shall be completed at least 60 days prior to the scheduled trial date.

(b) When Mediation is Not Required. Mediation shall not be required as provided in Section (a) in the following cases:

- (1) For good cause shown upon motion and approval by the court; or
- (2) Where a domestic violence restraining order or protection order (excluding ex parte orders) involving the parties has been entered by a court at any time within the previous 12 months;
- (3) Where a domestic violence no contact order exists pursuant to RCW 10.99;
- (4) Where the court upon motion finds that domestic abuse has occurred between the parties and that such abuse would interfere with arm's-length mediation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may by motion seek a court order requiring mandatory mediation in a case where it would not be required as set forth in (b) (2), (b) (3) or (b) (4) above if the moving party believes that the parties would be able to mediate their dispute at arm's-length under the particular circumstances of the case.

(c) Settlement Conference. If, after mediation in good faith or where mediation is not required, there remain unresolved issues in any case specified by Section (a) of SPR 94.08.2, the parties may participate in a settlement conference, pursuant to LCR 16(b).

(d) Effect on Court Proceedings. Mediation does not stay or otherwise affect the rights and duties of the parties established by statute, court rule, or court order. The court may enter temporary orders and the parties may conduct discovery prior to or during the mediation process.

(e) Cost of Mediation. Mediators shall be paid by the parties in accordance with the agreement of the parties, or in the absence of agreement, as determined in mediation.

(f) Responsibility for Compliance. The parties shall be responsible for arranging for and completing all mediation requirements established under this rule.

(g) Failure to Comply. Willful refusal to participate in mediation or willful delay in completing mediation may result in a finding of contempt and imposition of sanctions.

(h) Approval of Mediators. Mediators performing mediation services pursuant to this rule must fulfill certain minimum qualifications established by the court. The court administrator and clerk's office shall maintain a list of such minimum qualifications for distribution to the public. In order to fulfill the mediation requirements of this rule, the parties must use the services of a court-approved mediator. The court administrator shall maintain a list of approved mediators, either persons or agencies, for distribution to the public. The list shall contain the following information: each mediator's name, organization, if any, address and telephone number, and fee schedule.

(i) Selection of Mediator; Right of Mediator to Decline. The parties may either agree to a mediator from the court-approved list or the mediator will be determined by use of a strike list. A mediator has the right to decline to serve in a particular case. If a mediator declines to serve, the parties shall select a different mediator, using the same selection process by which the preceding mediator was selected.

(j) Authority of Mediator. The mediator has the authority to determine the time, place, manner, and duration of mediation. In appropriate cases, the mediator shall have the authority to terminate the mediation prior to completion.

(k) Attendance at Mediation. The parties shall personally attend all mediation sessions, unless the mediator permits telephonic or other attendance. The mediator shall have the authority to require other persons to attend.

(l) Declaration of Completion. Within seven (7) days of completion of mediation, a declaration that mediation has been completed shall be filed with the court by the mediator. The mediator shall advise counsel and the parties of the results of mediation in writing. The mediator shall advise the court only whether an agreement has been reached on some or all of the issues.

(m) Confidentiality. The work product of the mediator and all communications during the mediation shall be privileged and confidential and not subject to compulsory disclosure. The mediator shall not appear to testify in any court proceedings. See RCW 5.60.070.

(n) Effective Date. This shall apply to all cases described herein, including modifications filed after September 1, 2008.

SPR 94.08.4.
COURTCALL TELEPHONIC APPEARANCE RULE

(a) Program Overview.

(1) The CourtCall Telephonic Appearance Program ("CourtCall"), 1-888-882-6878, organizes a procedure for telephonic appearance by attorneys or pro se parties as a reasonable alternative to personal appearances in appropriate cases and situations. CourtCall is fully voluntary and no person is required to utilize CourtCall. CourtCall is available at a fixed fee to use when circumstances are appropriate.

(2) Hearings will be held on a specific calendar in the usual manner, unless the court exercises its discretion to call cases in a different order.

(3) Hearings are conducted in open court or in private as the court may designate. All attorneys or pro se parties making CourtCall Appearances call a designated toll free teleconference number a few minutes before the calendar is scheduled, to check in with the clerk. Attorneys or pro se parties remain on the court's speakerphone-telephone line and hear the same business that those present in the court may be hearing. Attorneys or pro se parties not participating telephonically appear in person. The court calls cases for hearing. All attorneys or pro se parties on a case participate in the hearing. All present in the courtroom hear the discourse of those making CourtCall Appearances.

(4) CourtCall Appearances are scheduled, in writing, in advance, by counsel or pro se parties serving on all other counsel and pro se parties and delivering (via fax, mail, or personal delivery) to CourtCall, LLC, not less than seven (7) court days prior to the hearing date, a Request for CourtCall Appearance form and by paying the stated fee for each CourtCall Appearance. The court may shorten the time for serving the request for good cause shown.

(b) Participation in CourtCall Appearances.

(1) Court.

(a) The court shall hear CourtCall Appearances in the order in which they are noted on the calendar, unless the court exercises its discretion to call cases in a different manner.

(b) Subject to the court's right to amend this list, the following matters are currently deemed unsuitable for CourtCall Appearances.

(i) Judgment Debtor Examinations;

(ii) Settlement Conferences;

(iii) Hearings and trials at which oral testimony may be presented;

(iv) Hearings in which oral argument is anticipated to exceed 15 minutes, unless the matter has been specially set by the court administrator and appropriately scheduled through Court Call.

(c) The court reserves the right, at any time, to reject any Request for CourtCall Appearance. When the court rejects a request, it shall order a refund of deposited telephonic appearance fees and notify CourtCall, LLC.

(d) The court reserves the right to halt the telephonic hearing on any matter and order the attorneys to personally appear at a later date and time, in which case no refund is permitted.

(e) If a matter is continued prior to the actual hearing date, the prior filing of a Request for CourtCall Appearance form shall remain valid for the continued date of the hearing.

(f) Existing rules and procedures regarding making of the record by a court reporter or electronic device or obtaining a transcript after the hearing shall apply to hearings at which CourtCall Appearances are made. No private recordings may be made of telephonic appearances.

(g) Upon proper motion, the court in its discretion may waive the CourtCall fee for a party who is found by the court to be indigent or for his or her counsel.

(2) Attorneys and Pro Se Parties.

(a) Attorneys and pro se parties electing to make a CourtCall Appearance shall serve, on all other parties in the case, the Request for CourtCall Appearance form, fax or otherwise deliver a copy of the form to CourtCall, LLC, and pay the CourtCall Appearance Fee in the method prescribed, not less than seven (7) court days before the hearing date. The court may shorten the time for serving the request for good cause shown.

(b) When the Request for CourtCall Appearance is made at the same time as the filing of the hearing documents or response, in addition to the Request for CourtCall Appearance form, the words "CourtCall Appearance Requested" shall be printed below the department, date, and time of the hearings on the first page of the papers filed with the court and courtesy copies for the judge.

(c) Appearance Procedure.

(1) An attorney or pro se party making a Court Call Appearance shall:

(A) Eliminate to the greatest extent possible all ambient noise from the calling location;

(b) Be required, during the speaker's appearance, to speak directly into a telephone handset;

(c) Not call in with cellular or cordless telephone devices or through a personal computer.

(2) An attorney or pro se party making a CourtCall Appearance shall call the court's designated toll free teleconference line approximately five (5) minutes prior to the scheduled hearing time and check-in with the clerk. All persons calling after the check-in period shall be considered to be late for the hearing and shall be treated by the court in the same manner as if the person had personally appeared late for the hearing.

(3) An attorney or pro se party appearing telephonically shall state his or her name for the record each time the person speaks and shall participate in the appearance with the same degree of courtesy and courtroom etiquette as is required for a personal appearance. An attorney or pro se party shall not utilize the "hold" button, as it is not within the policy of the court to wait for any person to rejoin the line.

SPR 98.04.5.
GUARDIANS AD LITEM.

(a) Appointments of Guardian ad Litem. All guardians ad litem shall be appointed as set forth in the policies and procedures for guardians ad litem, approved by the judges and maintained by the Superior Court Administration office.

(b) Supplemental Order. In any case in which a guardian ad litem is appointed for a minor, any party may request an "Order Appointing Guardian ad Litem (Supplemental)" in addition to the mandatory "Order Appointing Guardian ad Litem" form. The form of the Supplemental Order may be found in the Forms Appendix.

(c) Grievance Procedures.

(1) Submission of Complaints. All complaints made by or against guardians ad litem shall be in writing and shall be submitted to the Superior Court Administrator. All complaints must bear the signature, name and address of the person filing the complaint.

(2) Review of Complaint. Upon receipt of a written complaint, the court administrator shall refer the complaint to the judge for review

(3) Findings and Action of Complaint. Upon review of the complaint, the judge shall either:

(A) Make a finding that the complaint is with regard to a case then pending in the court and decline to review the complaint and so inform the complainant. In such instances, the judge shall advise the complainant that the complaint may only be addressed in the context of the case at bar, either by seeking the removal of the guardian ad litem or by contesting the information or recommendation contained in the guardian ad litem's report or testimony; or

(B) Make a finding that the complaint has no merit on its face, and decline to review the complaint and so inform the complainant; or

(C) Make a finding that the complaint appears to have merit and request a written response from the guardian ad litem or other person against whom the complaint is brought within 10 business days, detailing the specific issues in the complaint to which the judge desires a response. The judge shall provide the guardian ad litem or other person against whom the complaint is brought with a copy of the original complaint. In considering whether any complaint against a guardian ad litem has merit, the judge shall consider whether the complaint alleges the guardian ad litem has (i) violated a code of conduct, (ii) misrepresented his or her qualifications to serve as a guardian ad litem, (iii) breached the confidentiality of the parties, (iv) falsified information in a report to the court or in testimony before the court, (v) failed, when required, to report abuse of a child, (vi) communicated with a judicial officer ex parte concerning a case for which he or she is serving as guardian ad litem, (vii) violated state or local laws or court rules, or (viii) taken or failed to take any other action which would reasonably place the suitability of the person to serve as a guardian ad litem in question.

(4) Response and Findings on Complaint. Upon receipt of a written response to a complaint, the judge shall make a finding as to each of the specific issues in the complaint to which the judge desires a response, as delineated in the judge's letter to the person against whom the complaint is brought. Such findings shall state that either there is no merit to the issue based upon the response or that there is merit to the issue.

(5) Forms of Discipline. The judge shall have the authority to issue a written admonition or a written reprimand, refer the guardian ad litem (if the complaint is against a guardian ad litem) to additional training, or suspend or remove the guardian ad litem from the registry. In considering an appropriate form of discipline, the judge shall take into consideration any prior complaints that resulted in an admonition, reprimand, referral to training, or suspension or removal from the registry. If the guardian ad litem against whom the discipline is directed is listed on more than one registry, the suspension or removal may apply to each registry the guardian ad litem is listed on, at the discretion of the judge.

(6) Notice to Complainant and Person Against Whom Complaint is Brought. The complainant and the person against whom the complaint is brought shall be notified in writing of the judge's decision following receipt of the response to the complaint.

(7) Confidentiality. A complaint shall be deemed confidential for all purposes unless the judge reviewing the complaint has determined that the complaint has merit. Any record of complaints filed which are not deemed by the judge to have merit shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed except by court order, upon good cause shown, after the person against whom the complaint was brought has been given notice and an opportunity to be heard.

(8) Complaint Processing Standards. Complaints shall be resolved within 25 days of the date of receipt of the written complaint if a case is pending. Complaints shall be resolved within 60 days of the date of receipt of the written complaint if the complaint is filed after the conclusion of a case.

(9) Removal from Registry. When a guardian ad litem is removed from the court's registry pursuant to the disposition of a grievance hereunder, the court administrator shall send a notice of such removal to the Administrative Office of the Courts. When the court administrator receives notice from the Administrative Office of the Courts that a guardian ad litem on the court's registry has been removed from the registry of any other Washington superior court, the court administrator shall advise the judge of such removal.
